

Secretary/Treasurer – Douglas Easton

Douglas Easton has over 25 years of not-for-profit experience in British Columbia. Serving as a board director, committee chair and board chair for various organizations in B.C., Doug has developed a strong background in corporate governance, strategic planning, finance, capital planning and human resources.

Through his years of experience, Doug has demonstrated competence in both the corporate and not-for-profit sectors. He is skilled at effectively establishing rapport and credibility with stakeholders ranging from not-for-profit society members, board members, local community associations and international accreditation organizations. Douglas is the chair of the Society's Finance & Audit committee.
