On This Date

1849 – Governor William Rowan proclaimed that the seat of government for the province of Canada would be moved to Toronto from Montreal, after the Parliament Buildings in Montreal were burned down by mobs protesting the Rebellion Losses Bill.

1964 – Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings scored his 627th career goal, becoming the NHL's all-time leading goal scorer at the time—including playoff goals.

1982 – Jean Drapeau was elected to his eighth term as mayor of Montreal, securing 48 percent of the popular vote. Despite a drop in support from previous elections, his Civic Party won 39 of 57 council seats, maintaining control of city hall.

Did You Know?

Gordie Howe is the only person to play in at least one professional hockey game in six different decades.

Quote of the Day

“If the planet were a patient, we would have treated her long ago.”

~ King Charles III

Happy Birthday!

King Charles III, born in 1948, is the reigning king of the United Kingdom. Charles ascended the throne in September 2022, upon the death of his mother,

Queen Elizabeth II, and his coronation took place on May 6, 2023, in Westminster Abbey. Charles has been no stranger to the headlines in his lifetime, including his troubled marriage to Diana, Princess of Wales, his 2005 marriage to longtime love Camilla Parker-Bowles, his highly publicized rift with his son Prince Harry, and his current treatments for an undisclosed form of cancer. Through it all, King Charles has remained a passionate advocate for the environment, healthcare, the arts, and education.
