

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 2024

On This Date

1701 – The notorious privateer William “Captain” Kidd was executed in London for murder and piracy. Treasure hunters are still searching for his loot.

1873 – The first 150 recruits of the North-West Mounted Police formed the new unit in Manitoba.

1934 – Notorious criminals Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow were shot to death by Texas and Louisiana State Police while driving a stolen car near Sailes, Louisiana. Their exploits were the subject of the hit 1967 movie Bonnie and Clyde.

1974 – New Brunswick became the first, and is still the only, province to be officially bilingual.

Who Said What?

“I don’t know anything about music. In my line, you don’t have to.”

ANSWER: Elvis Presley

Quote of the Day

“If frogs could fly . . . well, we’d still be in this mess, but wouldn’t it be neat?”

~ Drew Carey

Happy Birthday!

Drew Carey, born in 1958, is an American comedian, actor, and TV host from Cleveland, Ohio. With his affable personality and comedic talents, Carey found fame with The Drew Carey Show, a sitcom that ran from 1995 to 2004. His success continued with hosting the improv comedy show Whose Line Is It Anyway? and later taking the reins of the iconic game show The Price Is Right in 2007. Carey is also known for his philanthropy, including generous donations to the Ohio Library Foundation and Cleveland Public Library.

