

Applying to Long-Term Care

A First Link® Learning Series

Date and Time:

Tuesday, November 12, 2024
9:30 to 11:30 am

Location:

Campbellford
(Exact location provided upon registration)

In collaboration with Campbellford Memorial Hospital, the Alzheimer Society invites you to participate in this education session designed to help care partners understand the process of applying to long-term care.

The process of applying to long-term care can seem overwhelming. Our goal with this session is to walk you through the steps, allowing you time to consider your situation and ask your questions.

Who Should Attend:

Care partners who want to know more about applying to long-term care.

---

This session is offered FREE of charge, but spaces are limited. Registration is required for this program.
