10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Location:

Lindsay
(Exact location provided upon registration)

This education session is for care partners who are supporting someone living with dementia who is on the waitlist for long-term care and is planning to move to a long-term care home in the future.

In this session, care partners will learn how to prepare the person living with dementia and themselves for the transition to long-term care.

Topics include:

- Preparing the person living with dementia for the move
- Preparing yourself for the move
- Acknowledging emotions
- Transitioning your role after the move

This series is offered FREE of charge, but spaces are limited.
Registration is required for this program.
