

GARDENING

1. What is a heirloom seed?

- a. A seed your grandmother gives you
- b. A seed that's worth a lot of money
- c. A seed from a variety of plant that has been around for many years

1. What is a heirloom seed?

c. A seed from a variety of plant that has been around for many year

2. What best describes annuals?

- a. Plants that bloom once a year
- b. Plants that thrive year-round
- c. Plants that have a year long life cycle

2. What best describes annuals?

c. Plants that have a year long life cycl

3. Which of these veggies is a cool weather crop?

- a. Peppers
- b. Cauliflower
- c. Tomatoes

3. Which of these veggies is a cool weather crop?

b. Cauliflower

4. What is girdling?

- a. The wrapping of shrubs for winter protection
- b. Choking of a branch by a wire or other material
- c. How an aphid chews its way around the stem of a plant

4. What is girdling?

- b. Choking of a branch by a wire or other material

5. Which of these is a great source of nitrogen for your soil?

a. Coffee grounds

b. Sugar

c. Banana peels

5. Which of these is a great source of nitrogen for your soil?

a. Coffee grounds

6. What is the general term given to trees and shrubs whose leaves fall in the Autumn?

- a. Evergreen
- b. Deciduous
- c. Ambidextrous

6. What is the general term given to trees and shrubs whose leaves fall in the Autumn?

b. Deciduous

7. What does deadheading flowers do?

- a. Stimulates root growth
- b. Stunts growth
- c. Encourages further blooming

7. What does deadheading flowers do?

c. Encourages further blooming

8. What do the three numbers on fertilizer containers mean?

- a. Percentage of phosphorus, nitrogen and potassium
- b. Ratio between potassium, phosphorus, nitrogen
- c. Percentage of nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium

8. What do the three numbers on fertilizer containers mean?

c. Percentage of nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium